DETAILED ACTION

This is a first office action in regard to applicant's preliminary amendment filed May 27, 2006.

Drawings

1. Figure s 1-2 should be designated by a legend such as --Prior Art-- because only that which is old is illustrated. See MPEP § 608.02(g). Corrected drawings in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121(d) are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. The replacement sheet(s) should be labeled "Replacement Sheet" in the page header (as per 37 CFR 1.84(c)) so as not to obstruct any portion of the drawing figures. If the changes are not accepted by the examiner, the applicant will be notified and informed of any required corrective action in the next Office action. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

- The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:
 The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.
- 3. Claim 1 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention. In this claim, the relative term "nearly" (line 5) is vague and indefinite. And, the terms "the mid point" (line 3), "the lowest part" (line 5), "the closer" (line 6), and "the upper part" (line 6) lack a proper antecedent basis which will causes the claim vague and indefinite.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

4. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless -

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

5. Claim 1 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Renouard (GB 106,497).

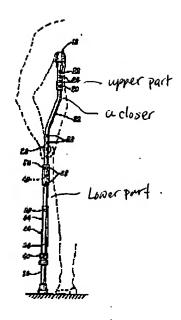

Renouard shows and teaches a crutch comprising a curved support rod (a) having an upper part and a lower part, a cross-pad (a') mounted on an upper end of the support rod, a hand piece (a3) positioned at a mid point of the support rod, and a cap (a2) mounted on a lower end of the support rod for preventing skipping of the crutch, wherein a lower part (which the cap is mounted thereon) of the curved support rod is substantially straightly extended, and the most upper part of the support rod is more curved with a smaller radius.

6. Claim 1 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Acosta, Sr. (US Patent No. 4,763,680).

Acosta, Sr. shows and teaches a crutch comprising a curved support rod (32) having an upper part (20) and a lower part (36), a cross-pad (18) mounted on an upper end of the curved support rod, a hand piece (26) positioned at a mid point of the curved support rod, and a cap (no number, See Figs. 1-2) mounted on a lower end (36) of the curved support rod for preventing skidding of the crutch, wherein the lower part (16) of the curved support rod is substantially straightly extended, and a closer to the upper part (20) of the curved support rod is more curved with a smaller radius (see illustration bellow).

Application/Control Number: 10/536,910

Art Unit: 3636

7. Claim 1 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Yamasaki et al. (US Patent No. 5,725,005).

Yamasaki et al. show and teach a crutch (see Fig. 22A) comprising: a curved support rod (1), a cross-pad (2) mounted on an upper end of the curved support rod, a hand piece (4) substantially positioned at a mid point of the curved support rod, and a cap (3) mounted on a lower end of the curved support rod for preventing skidding of the crutch, wherein a lower part of the curved support rod is substantially straightly extended, and a closer to an upper part of the support rod is more curved with a smaller radius.

8. Claim 1 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Nuys et al. (US Patent No. 3,537,463).

Application/Control Number: 10/536,910 Page 5

Art Unit: 3636

Nuys et al. show and teach a crutch comprising: a curved support rod (26), a cross-pad (34) mounted on an upper end of the curved support rod, a hand piece (11) positioned at a mid point of the curved support rod, and a cap (20) mounted on a lower end of the curved support rod for preventing skidding of the crutch, wherein a lower part (18) of the curved support rod is substantially straightly extended, and a closer (at point 36) at the upper end of the curved support rod is more curved with a smaller radius.
